Complaints Policy

Dealing with most concerns

The complainant should initially raise any concern directly with the class teacher informally at a mutually agreed time. This can be organised by phoning the school office. Most concerns can be sorted out quickly and easily by your child's class teacher. They are the person who knows your child very well and always aims to provide the very best care for their children.

Please see our home-school communication policy for more information on how to escalate concerns.

Definition of a parent and parental responsibility

Section 576 of the Education Act 1996 defines parents as being:

- all natural (biological) parents, whether they are named or not
- any person who, although not a natural parent, has parental responsibility for a child or young person (this could be a step-parent, guardian or other relative)
- any person who, although not a natural parent, has care of a child or young person.

A person has care of a child or young person if they are the person with whom the child lives and who looks after the child, irrespective of what their relationship is with the child.

Everyone who is a parent, recognised by the Education Act 1996, can participate in their child's education: attend parents' evenings; receive a copy of the pupil's annual report; be sent copies of school letters etc.

In family law, parental responsibility means all the rights, duties, powers, responsibilities and authority that a parent has in relation to the child. Key to schools, this gives parents the right to:

- give valid consent for a child's medical treatment (subject to the competency of the child to give their own consent or object to the treatment being proposed)
- access their child's health records
- withdraw their child from sex education and religious education classes and make representations to the school concerning their child's education.

Ryton Infant and Junior School Federation aims to resolve all complaints at the earliest possible stage and is dedicated to continuing to provide the highest quality of education possible throughout the procedure.

This policy has been created to deal with any complaint against a member of staff or the school as a whole, relating to any aspects of the school or the provision of facilities or services that the school provides. This policy outlines the procedure that the complainant and school must follow.

Once a complaint has been made, it can be resolved or withdrawn at any stage.

The Executive Headteacher will be the next point of contact when following the complaints procedure if the class teacher has been unable to resolve the issue.

1. Legal framework

1.1. This policy has due regard to statutory legislation, including, but not limited to, the following:

- The Education Act 2002
- The Freedom of Information Act 2000
- The Immigration Act 2016
- The Equality Act 2010
- The General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)
- The Data Protection Act 2018
- The Education (Pupil Information) (England) Regulations 2005
- The School Information (England) (Amendment) Regulations 2016

1.2. This policy also has due regard to guidance including, but not limited to, the following:

- DoFE (2019) 'Best practice guidance for school complaints procedures 2019'
- HM Government (2016) 'Code of Practice on the English language requirement for public sector workers'

1.3. This policy will be implemented in accordance with the following school policies:

- Child Protection and Safeguarding Policy
- Grievance Policy

2. Definition

2.1. For the purpose of this policy, a "complaint" can be defined as 'an expression of dissatisfaction' which can be regarding actions taken or a perceived lack of action.

2.2. Complaints can be resolved formally, through this procedure, or informally dependent on the complainant's choice.

2.3. A concern can be defined as 'an expression of worry or doubt' for which reassurance is sought.

2.4. Any complaint or concern will be taken seriously, whether formally or informally, and the appropriate procedures shall be taken.

2.5. A 'grievance' is an issue raised by a member of staff where they feel the school has not implemented a policy or process fairly or properly. Grievances will be dealt with in line with the school's Grievance Policy.

2.6. For the purpose of this policy, "concerns" will be classed and addressed as complaints. Any further references to "complaints" will include "concerns".

3. Roles and responsibilities

3.1. The complainant will:

- Cooperate with the school in seeking a solution to the complaint.
- Express the complaint and their concerns in full at the earliest possible opportunity.
- Promptly respond to any requests for information or meetings.
- Ask for assistance as needed.
- Treat any person(s) involved in the complaint with respect.
- Make it clear what they want as a resolution

3.2. The complaints co-ordinator will:

- Ensure that all parties involved in the complaint are fully updated throughout each stage of the procedure.
- Guarantee that all parties involved in the procedure are aware of any relevant legislation, including the Equality Act 2010, GDPR, Data Protection Act 2018 and Freedom of Information Act 2000.
- Keep up-to-date records throughout the procedure – these records will be kept securely on the school's ICT system and retained in line with the school's Records Management Policy.
- Liaise with all parties involved to ensure the complaints procedure runs smoothly, including the Executive Headteacher, clerk and chair of governors.
- Be aware of issues with regard to sharing third party information.

- Understand the complainant's need for additional support, including interpretation support, and will be aware of any issues concerning this.

3.3. The investigator is involved in stages one and two of the procedure.
Their role includes:

- Providing a sensitive and thorough interviewing process of the complainant to establish what has happened and who is involved.
- Considering all records, evidence and relevant information provided.
- Interviewing all parties that are involved in the complaint, including staff and pupils.
- Analysing all information in a comprehensive and fair manner.
- Liaising with the complainant and complaints co-ordinator to clarify an appropriate resolution to the problem.
- Identifying and recommending solutions and courses of actions to take.
- Being mindful of timescales and ensuring all parties involved are aware of these timescales.
- Responding to the complainant in a clear and understandable manner.

3.4. The panel chair will:

- Ensure that minutes of the hearings are taken on every occasion.
- Explain the remit of the panel to the complainant.
- Ensure that all issues are addressed and that outcomes are reached based on facts and evidence.
- Help to put at ease and console individuals involved who are not used to speaking at such hearings, particularly any pupils involved.
- Conduct the hearing in an informal manner, ensuring that everyone is treated with respect and courtesy.
- Ensure that the room's layout and setting is informal and non-adversarial, yet still sets the appropriate tone.
- Confirm that no member of the panel has previously been involved in the earlier stages of the procedure or has an external interest in the outcome of the proceedings.
- Give both the complainant and the school the opportunity to state their case and seek clarity without undue interruption.

- Provide copies of any written material or evidence to everyone in attendance of the meeting, ensuring that everyone has seen the necessary material.
- Organise a short adjournment of the hearing if required.
- Continuously liaise with the clerk and complaints co-ordinator to ensure the procedure runs smoothly.
- Help to provide the support necessary where the complainant is a child.

3.5. All panel members will be aware that:

- The review panel hearing is independent and impartial.
- No individual with prior involvement in the complaint, or the circumstances surrounding it, is permitted to sit on the panel.
- The aim of the panel is to achieve a reasonable resolution and, ultimately, attain reconciliation between the parties involved.
- Reconciliation between the school and complainant is not always achievable, and that it may only be possible to establish facts and make recommendations to reassure the complainant that their case has been taken seriously.

The panel can:

- Dismiss or uphold the complaint, in whole or in part.
- Decide on appropriate action to be taken.
- Recommend changes that the school can make to prevent reoccurrence of the problem.
- Complainants may feel nervous or inhibited in a formal setting and, therefore, the proceedings should be as welcoming as possible.
- When a child is present at the hearing, extra care needs to be taken to ensure that the child does not feel intimidated, as well as ensuring the child's view is represented equally.

3.6. The panel clerk will:

- Continuously liaise with the complaints co-ordinator.
- Record the proceedings.

- Set the date, time and venue of all hearings, ensuring that this is appropriate, convenient and accessible to all parties involved.
- Collate all written material or evidence involved and send it to the parties involved in timely advance of the hearing.
- Greet all parties as they arrive at the hearing.
- Ensure that the minutes of the panel hearing are circulated.
- Notify the relevant parties of the panel's decision and any other actions to be taken.

4. Making a complaint

4.1. Complaints are not restricted to parents of attending pupils. The school will consider all complaints.

4.2. The school will ensure that all aspects of the complaints procedure are:

- Easily accessible and publicised on the school's website.
- Simple to understand and put into practice.
- Impartial and fair to all parties involved. Respectful of confidentiality duties.
- Continuously under improvement, using information gathered during the procedure to inform the school's SLT.
- Fairly investigated, by an independent person when necessary.
- Used to address all issues to provide appropriate and effective responses where necessary.

4.3. Complaints are expected to be made as soon as possible after an incident arises to amend the issue in an appropriate timescale.

4.4. The school upholds a three-month time limit in which a complaint can be lodged regarding an incident.

4.5. Complaints made outside this time limit will not be automatically refused and exceptions will be considered.

4.6. In the case of any timescales changing, all parties involved will be informed of the changes in a timely manner.

4.7. Complaints should be made using the appropriate channels of communication, including the use of the Complaints Procedure Form.

- 4.8. All complaints shall be considered, whether they are made in person, by telephone, in writing, electronically via email, or via a third party (such as the Citizen's Advice Bureau).
- 4.9. A complaint can progress to the next stage of the procedure even if it is not viewed as "justified". All complainants are given the opportunity to fully complete the complaints procedure.
- 4.10. Any complaint made against a member of staff will be initially dealt with by the Executive Headteacher, and then by a committee of the governing board.
- 4.11. Any complaint made against the Executive Headteacher shall be initially dealt with by a suitably skilled member of the governing board and then by a committee of the governing board.
- 4.12. Any complaint made against the chair of governors or any other member of the governing board should be made in writing to the clerk to the governing board.
- 4.13. Any complaint made against the entire governing board, or complaints involving the chair and the vice chair, should be made in writing to the clerk. The clerk will then determine the most appropriate course of action, depending on the nature of the complaint. This action may involve sourcing an independent investigator to initially deal with the complaint and then getting the complaint to be heard by co-opted governors from another school.
- 4.14. Under some circumstances, it may be necessary to deviate from the complaints procedure. Any deviation will be documented.
- 4.15. Information about a complaint will not be disclosed to a third party without written consent from the complainant.

5. Complaints procedure

- Informal (meeting with the complainant)
- Formal (the complaint is put in writing)
- A panel hearing

Stage one – Informal concern made to a member of staff

- 5.1. A complaint may be made in person, by telephone or in writing.
- 5.2. The member of staff the complaint has been made against can discuss the concern with the Executive Headteacher or complaints co-ordinator to seek support.
- 5.3. To prevent any later challenge or disagreement over what was said, brief notes of meetings and telephone calls are kept and a copy of any written response is added to the record. These notes are kept securely on the school's ICT system and, where appropriate, encrypted.
- 5.4. If the concern is about the Executive Headteacher, the complaints co-ordinator should be informed and will need to handle the complaint. The complainant can then be referred to the chair of the governing board.
- 5.5. In case a complaint is made initially to a governor, the complainant should be referred to the appropriate person. The governor in question should not act alone on a complaint outside the procedure; if they do, they cannot be involved if the complaint is subject to a hearing at a later stage of the procedure.
- 5.6. Within 15 school days, the complainant and the relevant member of staff should discuss the issue in a respectful and informal manner to seek a mutual resolution.
- 5.7. At this stage, the complainant will be asked what they think might resolve the issue – any acknowledgement that the school could have handled the situation better is not an admission of unlawful or negligent action.
- 5.8. If an appropriate resolution cannot be sought at this informal level, or if the complainant is dissatisfied with the outcome following the initial discussions, the complainant may wish to proceed to the next level of the procedure.

Stage two – Formal complaint made to the Executive Headteacher

- 5.9. Stage two of the process will be completed within 15 school days. Where the situation is recognised as complex, and it is deemed to be unable to be resolved within this timescale, the Executive Headteacher will contact the complainant to inform them of the revised target date via a written notification.

- 5.10. An appointment with the Executive Headteacher should be made, as soon as reasonably practical, to avoid any possible worsening of the situation.
- 5.11. If the complaint is against the Executive Headteacher, the complainant will initially need to write, in confidence, to the chair of the governing board. The chair will seek to resolve the issue informally before moving directly to stage three of the procedure.
- 5.12. Where the Executive Headteacher or chair of the governing board has made reasonable attempts to accommodate the complainant with dates for a complaint meeting and they refuse or are unable to attend, the meeting will be convened in their absence and a conclusion will be reached in the interests of drawing the complaint to a close.
- 5.13. Where there are communication difficulties, the complaint may be made in person or via telephone.
- 5.14. To prevent any later challenge or disagreement over what was said, brief notes of meetings and telephone calls are kept, and a copy of any written response is added to the record. These notes are kept securely on the school's ICT system and, where appropriate, encrypted.
- 5.15. In terms of a complaint being made against a member of staff, the Executive Headteacher will discuss the issue with the staff member in question. Where necessary, the Executive Headteacher will conduct interviews with any relevant parties, including witnesses and pupils, and take statements from those involved.
- 5.16. All discussions shall be recorded by the Executive Headteacher and findings and resolutions will be communicated to the complainant either verbally or in writing.
- 5.17. Once all facts are established, the Executive Headteacher shall contact the complainant in writing with an explanation of the decision. The complainant will be advised of any escalation options (for example, escalation to stage three) and will be provided with details of this process.
- 5.18. The complainant will also be provided with copies of minutes, subject to any necessary redactions under the Data Protection Act 2018 and the GDPR.
- 5.19. Any further action the school plans to take to resolve the issue will be explained to the complainant in writing.

5.20. If the complainant is not satisfied with the outcome suggested, the procedure will progress to stage three.

Stage three – Investigation by the chair of governors

5.21. The complainant should submit any complaint in respect of the Executive Headteacher's investigation in writing (or via an alternative method if necessary) to the chair of governors.

5.22. The chair of governors will carry out an investigation and consider all available evidence.

5.23. The complainant and the Executive Headteacher will be informed of the outcome within 20 school days of the chair of governors receiving the complaint. The complainant will be advised of any escalation options (for example, escalation to stage four) and will be provided with details of this process.

5.24. The complainant will also be provided with copies of minutes, subject to any necessary redactions under the Data Protection Act 2018 and the GDPR.

5.25. If the complainant is not satisfied with the manner in which the process has been followed, considers the decision to be perverse, or believes that the chair has acted unreasonably, they may request that the governing board reviews the complaint (stage four).

Stage four – Complaints appeal panel (CAP)

5.26. Following receipt of a stage three outcome, the complaint should be made in writing to the chair of governors within 10 school days.

5.27. Where there are communication difficulties, the complaint may be made in person or via telephone.

5.28. To prevent any later challenge or disagreement over what was said, brief notes of meetings and telephone calls are kept, and a copy of any written response is added to the record. These notes are kept securely on the school's ICT system and, where appropriate, encrypted.

5.29. Written acknowledgement of the complaint will be made within three school days. This will inform the complainant that a CAP will hear the complaint within 20 school days.

5.30. Neither the school nor the complainant should bring legal representation to the CAP proceedings; however, there are occasions where legal representation will be necessary, for example where a school employee is a witness in a complaint, they may be entitled to bring union or legal representation.

5.31. The chair of governors, or another nominated governor, will convene a CAP comprising:

- Three members of the governing board.

5.32. If the whole governing board is aware of the substance of a complaint before the CAP has been completed, an independent panel should be arranged to hear the complaint.

5.33. If the complainant believes there is likely to be bias in the proceedings, they reserve the right to request an independent panel – complainants should provide evidence to support their request. Where the appearance of bias is sufficient to taint the decision reached, the request will likely be granted by the governing board.

5.34. To appoint a governor from another school onto an independent complaints panel, the governing board does not have to enter into, or already be in, a formal arrangement under the School Governance (Collaboration) (England) Regulations 2003.

5.35. Where an independent panel is arranged on an ad-hoc, informal basis, governors who are suitably skilled and who can demonstrate their independence will be sourced. Governors from any category of governor or associate members of another governing board can be approached to take part in an independent panel.

- 5.36. A formal collaborative arrangement will be made with another maintained school where the school wishes to appoint a standing committee to hear all the complaints received under the complaints committee's tenure.
- 5.37. Where appropriate, the clerk will ask for support from the governor services team at the LA.
- 5.38. Five days' notice will be given to all parties attending the CAP, including the complainant.
- 5.39. Prior to the hearing, the chair of governors will have written to the complainant informing them of how the review will be conducted. The Executive Headteacher will also have a copy of this letter.
- 5.40. At the hearing, all participants will be given the opportunity to put their case across and discuss any issues.
- 5.41. The CAP will consider issues raised in the original complaint and any issues which have been highlighted during the complaints procedure.
- 5.42. The meeting should allow for:
- The complainant to be present and accompanied at the hearing if they wish.
 - The complainant to explain their complaint and the Executive Headteacher to explain the reasons for their decision.
 - The complainant to question the Executive Headteacher, and vice versa, about the complaint.
 - Any evidence, including witnesses who have been prior approved by the chair of the CAP, to be questioned.
 - Members of the CAP to question both the complainant and the Executive Headteacher.
 - Final statements to be made by both parties involved.
- 5.43. The complainant will receive a written response explaining the panel's findings and recommendations within 15 school days. This letter will also explain whether there are any further rights of appeal and to whom they need to be addressed.

5.44. Where relevant, the person complained about will receive a summary of the panel's findings and recommendations. They will also receive a copy of the minutes, subject to any necessary redactions under the Data Protection Act 2018 and the GDPR.

Final stage – Appeal

5.45. Some complainants may choose to contact the DFE or Secretary of State. The School Complaints Unit (to whom the Secretary of State's powers are delegated) will only consider cases in which the governing body has acted unlawfully or unreasonably (acting in a way that no reasonable school or governing board could act in the circumstances) and where it is expedient and practical to do so. It will only overturn a decision in extreme circumstances. If it decides that a school has not followed its published procedures, it has the power to direct that the process is revisited.

5.46. There are exceptional circumstances to the provisions outlined in 5.41. These are outlined in section 9 of this policy.

5.47 If the complainant pursues the allegations with Ofsted, it is not within Ofsted's remit to investigate such complaints, and the parent will usually be directed to the employer – the local authority (for maintained schools). The employer will then usually refer the matter back to the school, and the school should be able to show that the complaint has already been dealt with, lawfully and reasonably.

6. Interviewing witnesses

- 6.1. When interviewing pupils to gather information regarding a complaint, the interview should be conducted in the presence of another member of staff or, in the case of serious complaints, e.g. where the possibility of criminal investigation exists, in the presence of their parents.
- 6.2. The school will ensure that the conduction of interviews does not prejudice an LA designated officer's (LADO), or police, investigation.
- 6.3. The school understands the importance of ensuring a friendly and relaxed area which is free from intimidation.
- 6.4. All pupils interviewed will be made fully aware of what the interview concerns and their right to have someone with them.
- 6.5. Staff are allowed a colleague to support them at their interview. The colleague must not be anyone likely to be interviewed themselves, including their line manager.
- 6.6. The interviewer will not express opinions in words or attitude, so as to not influence the interviewee.
- 6.7. The interviewee will sign a copy of the transcription of the interview.

7. Recording a complaint

- 7.1. A written record shall be kept of any complaint made, whether made via phone, in person or in writing, detailing:
 - The main issues raised, the findings and any recommendations.
 - Whether the complaint was resolved following an informal route, formal route or panel hearing.
 - Actions taken by the school as a result of the complaint (regardless of whether the complaint was upheld).
- 7.2. All records are made available for inspection on the school premises by the proprietor and the Executive Headteacher.

- 7.3. The school holds the right to use recording devices, where appropriate, to ensure all parties involved are able to review the discussions at a later date.
- 7.4. Where there are communication difficulties or disabilities, the school may provide recording devices to ensure the complainant is able to access and review the discussions at a later point.
- 7.5. Recording devices will not be used without the prior consent of all parties.
- 7.6. The school will not accept, as evidence, any recordings that were obtained covertly and without the informed consent of all parties being recorded.
- 7.7. Details of any complaint made shall not be shared with the entire governing board. The exception to this is when a complaint is made against the whole governing board and they need to be aware of the allegations made against them, to respond to any independent investigation.
- 7.8. Complainants have a right to access copies of these records under the GDPR and the Freedom of Information Act 2000.
- 7.9. The school will hold all records of complaints centrally. Correspondence, statements and records relating to individual complaints are kept confidential except where the Secretary of State or a body conducting an inspection requests to access them.

8. Complaints not covered by this procedure

- 8.1. Complaints regarding the following topics should be directed to the LA:
- Statutory assessments of SEND
 - School re-organisation proposals
 - Admissions to schools
- 8.2. Complaints about child protection matters will be handled in line with the school's Child Protection and Safeguarding Policy and in accordance with relevant statutory guidance. Any child protection complaints should be directed to the LA designated officer (LADO) or the multi-agency safeguarding hub (MASH).
- 8.3. Complaints concerning admissions will be directed to the appropriate admissions authority.

- 8.4. Complaints about pupils being excluded from the school should be dealt with by following the process explained at: <https://www.gov.uk/school-disciplineexclusions/exclusions>.
- 8.5. The school has an internal whistleblowing procedure for all employees, including contractors and temporary staff. Complaints of this nature should not be addressed using this complaints procedure. These concerns can be directed to Ofsted by telephone on: 0300 123 3155 or via email at: whistleblowing@ofsted.gov.uk.
- 8.6. Volunteers who have concerns about the school or a member of staff should make their complaint in line with this policy. Volunteers may also be able to complain to the LA or DofE, depending on what the complaint is about.
- 8.7. Staff grievances and disciplinary procedures will be dealt with using the school's internal grievance procedure. In these cases, complainants will not be informed of the outcome of any investigations; however, they will be notified that the matter is being addressed.
- 8.8. This complaints procedure is not to be used when addressing any complaints made about services provided by a third party who may use the school premises or facilities. All complaints concerning this should be directed to the service provider.
- 8.9. Complaints about the content of national curriculum should be made to the DofE.
- 8.10. Complaints about how the school delivers the curriculum, including RE and RSE, will be dealt with using this complaints procedure.
- 8.11. Any complaints about the content of collective worship should be made to the LA, the local Standard Advisory Council on Religious Education or another relevant body.
- 8.12. Complaints from parents who are dissatisfied with the handling of a request to withdraw their child from RE or collective worship will be handled in line with this complaints procedure.

9. Exceptional circumstances

9.1 The DofE expects complainants to have completed the school's complaints procedure before directing a complaint to them. The exceptions to this include when:

- Pupils are at risk of harm.
- Pupils are missing education.
- A complainant is being prevented from having their complaint progress through the school's complaints procedure.
- The DofE has evidence that the school is proposing to act or is acting unlawfully or unreasonably.

9.2 If a social services authority decides to investigate a situation, the Executive Headteacher or governing board may postpone the complaints procedure.

9.3 Where a matter can be resolved through a legal appeal, it will not be considered as a formal complaint. The key areas are: admissions decisions, certain decisions relating to formal assessment of SEND, and decisions to permanently exclude a child.

9.4 If a complainant commences legal action against the school in relation to their complaint, the school will consider whether to suspend the complaints procedure, until those legal proceedings have concluded.

10 Duplicate complaints

10.1 There may be some cases where at the end of the complaints procedure, the school receives a duplicate complaint from a complainant's spouse, partner, grandparent or child.

10.2 Where the complaint is about the same subject, the new complainant will be informed that the school has already considered that complaint and that the local process has been completed. The new complainant will be advised to contact the DofE if they are dissatisfied with the school's handling of the original complaint.

10.3 The school will take care not to overlook any new aspects to the complaint that may not have been previously considered. Any new elements of a complaint will be investigated and dealt with in line with the full complaints procedure.

11. Serial and persistent complaints

11.1 The school will act in a manner they believe to be appropriate when dealing with an individual who consistently makes the same complaints or who continuously asks the school to reconsider their position.

11.2 If a complainant attempts to re-open an issue which has previously fully completed the complaints procedure, the school will inform the complainant that the matter is now closed.

11.3 If the complainant contacts the school regarding the same issue again, the complaint may be classed as 'serial' or 'persistent' and the school does not have an obligation to respond.

11.4 The school must ensure that a complaint is not classed as 'serial' before they have fully completed the complaints procedure.

11.5 The school will not take the decision to stop responding to an individual lightly. The school will ensure that:

- They have previously taken every reasonable step to address the problem.
- They have provided the complainant with a statement of their position.
- The complainant is contacting the school repeatedly with the same complaint.

11.6 If the school believes that the complainant is continuously contacting the school to cause disruption or inconvenience, or if the complainant is being abusive or threatening, the school has the right to not respond to the complainant.

11.7 Once the school decides to no longer respond to a complainant, the individual will be informed of this decision in writing.

11.8 If the school finds it difficult to deal with a complainant due to their unreasonable behaviour, then their complaint can be directed to the LA.

11.9 The complainant has the right to a third-party representative, such as the Citizens' Advice Bureau, throughout the complaints procedure.

11.10 Any new complaint made by a 'serial' complainant will be responded to.

11.11 Complainants hold the right to refer their complaint to their local MP. This would not make the individual a 'serial' or 'persistent' complainant.

11.12 The school will not deny any individual access to information that they have a right to under The Education (Pupil Information) (England) Regulations 2005.

12 Complaints campaigns

12.1 For the purposes of this policy, “complaints campaigns” are where the school receives large volumes of complaints that are all based on the same subject.

12.2 Where the school becomes the subject of a complaints campaign, a standard, single response will be on the school’s website.

12.3 If complainants remain dissatisfied with the school’s response, they will be directed to the DoFE.

12.a Complainants who use social media to air their complaint

It is held that unreasonable behaviour is committed when a complainant publishes unacceptable information on social media or other public forums.

The school will ask the complainant to refrain from publicising the details of their complaint on social media, remove any offending article/s and respect confidentiality.

13 Barring from the premises

13.1 School premises are private property and therefore any individual can be barred from entering the premises.

13.2 If an individual’s behaviour is cause for concern, the Executive Headteacher can ask the individual to leave the premises.

13.3 The Executive Headteacher will notify the parties involved in writing, explaining that their implied licence for access to the premises has been temporarily revoked and why, subject to any representations that the individual may wish to make.

13.4 The individual involved will be given the opportunity to formally express their views regarding the decision to bar them.

13.5 This decision to bar will be reviewed by the chair of governors or a committee of governors, taking into account any discussions following the incident.

13.6 If the decision is made to continue the bar, the individual will be contacted in writing, informing them of how long the bar will be in place, they will also be informed of when the decision will be reviewed.

13.7 Anyone wishing to make a complaint regarding a barring order can do so in writing, including email, to the Executive Headteacher or chair of governors.

13.8 Once the school's complaints procedure is completed, the only remaining avenue of appeal is through the Courts.

14. Standard of fluency complaints

14.1 As members of a public authority, all staff are subject to the fluency duty imposed by the Immigration Act 2016, which requires staff members to have an appropriate level of fluency in English in order to teach pupils.

14.2 The school is free to determine the level of spoken communication necessary in order for staff members to develop effective performance, but it will be matched to the demands of the role in question.

14.3 The school will be satisfied that an individual has the necessary level of fluency appropriate for the role they will be undertaking, whether this is an existing or potential new member of staff.

14.4 If a member of the school community feels that a staff member has insufficient proficiency in spoken English for the performance of their role, they are required to follow the complaints procedure outlined in section 5 of this policy.

14.5 For the purpose of this policy, a "legitimate complaint" is one which is about the standard of spoken English of a member of staff; complaints regarding an individual's accent, dialect, manner or tone of communication are not considered legitimate complaints.

14.6 All legitimate complaints regarding the fluency duty will be handled in line with the processes outlined in this policy.

14.7 In addition to the processes outlined in this policy, the school will assess the merits of a legitimate complaint against the necessary standard of spoken English fluency required for the role in question.

14.8 To assess the merits, the school will undertake an objective assessment against clear criteria set out in the role specification or, against the level of fluency descriptors relevant to the role in question.

14.9 If the complaint is upheld, the school will consider what action is necessary to meet the fluency duty; this may include:

- Specific training
- Specific re-training
- Assessment

- Re-deployment
- Dismissal

14.10 Appropriate support will be provided to staff to ensure that they are protected from vexatious complaints and are not subjected to unnecessary fluency testing.

14.11 Records of complaints regarding fluency will be kept in accordance with the processes outlined in section 7 of this policy.

15. Role of the school complaints unit (SCU)

15.1 If a complainant remains dissatisfied once the complaint procedure has been completed, they have the right to refer their complaint to the Secretary of State.

15.2 If a complainant wishes to escalate a complaint of bias, the DoFE will require evidence to be submitted with the complaint.

15.3 The Secretary of State will only intervene when they believe that the governing board has acted unlawfully or unreasonably.

15.4 The SCU will not overturn a school's decision about a complaint except in exceptional circumstances, such as the school acting unlawfully.

15.5 When making a final decision about a complaint, the school reserves the right to seek advice from the SCU on whether they are acting reasonably and lawfully; however, they will not be able to advise on how to resolve the complaint.

16 Transferring data

16.1 When a pupil changes school, the pupil's educational record will be transferred to the new school and no copies will be kept.

16.2 The school will hold records of complaints separate to pupil records while a complaint is ongoing, so that access to these records can be maintained.

16.3 Information that the school retains relating to a complaint will be stored securely and in line with the school's Records Management Policy.

17. Availability

A copy of this policy will be published on the school website in accordance with the School Information (England) (Amendment) Regulations 2016.

18.Reviewing the procedure

18.1. The complaints procedure will be reviewed every two years, taking into account the latest guidance issued by the DofE.

18.2. Responsibility for reviewing the procedure belongs to a committee of the governing board, an individual governor or the Executive Headteacher.

18.3. All projected review dates will be adhered to. The next review date is October 2026

18.4. Information gathered through reviewing the complaints procedure will be used to continuously improve and develop the process.

18.5. The monitoring and reviewing of complaints will be used to help evaluate the school's performance.

Appendix 1

Unreasonable Complainants

Ryton Infant and Junior School Federation is committed to dealing with all complaints fairly and impartially, and to providing a high-quality service to those who complain. We will not normally limit the contact complainants have with the school; however, we do not expect our staff to tolerate unacceptable behaviour and will take action to protect staff from that behaviour, including that which is abusive, offensive or threatening.

The school defines unreasonable complainants as 'those who, because of the frequency or nature of their contacts with the school, hinder our consideration of their or other people's complaints'.

A complaint may be regarded as unreasonable when the person making the complaint:

- Refuses to articulate their complaint or specify the grounds of a complaint or the outcomes sought by raising the complaint, despite offers of assistance.
- Refuses to co-operate with the complaints investigation process while still wishing their complaint to be resolved.
- Refuses to accept that certain issues are not within the scope of a complaints procedure.
- Insists on the complaint being dealt with in ways which are incompatible with the adopted complaints procedure or with good practice.
- Introduces trivial or irrelevant information which the complainant expects to be taken into account and commented on, or raises large numbers of detailed but unimportant questions, and insists they are fully answered, often immediately and to their own timescales.
- Makes unjustified complaints about staff who are trying to deal with the issues and seeks to have them replaced.
- Changes the basis of the complaint as the investigation proceeds.
- Repeatedly makes the same complaint (despite previous investigations or responses concluding that the complaint is groundless or has been addressed).
- Refuses to accept the findings of the investigation into that complaint where the school's complaints procedure has been fully and properly implemented and completed including referral to the DofE.
- Seeks an unrealistic outcome.
- Makes excessive demands on school time by frequent, lengthy, complicated and stressful contact with staff regarding the complaint in person, in writing, by email and by telephone while the complaint is being dealt with.

A complaint may also be considered unreasonable if the person making the complaint does so either face-to-face, by telephone or in writing or electronically:

- Maliciously
- Aggressively
- Using threats, intimidation or violence
- Using abusive, offensive or discriminatory language
- Knowing it to be false

- Using falsified information
- Publishing unacceptable information in a variety of media such as in social media websites and newspapers

Complainants should limit the numbers of communications with a school while a complaint is being progressed. It is not helpful if repeated correspondence is sent (either by letter, phone, email or text) as it could delay the outcome being reached.

Whenever possible, the Executive Headteacher or chair of governors will discuss any concerns with the complainant informally before applying an 'unreasonable' marking.

If the behaviour continues, the Executive Headteacher will write to the complainant explaining that their behaviour is unreasonable and asking them to change it. For complainants who excessively contact the school causing a significant level of disruption, the school may specify methods of communication and limit the number of contacts in a communication plan. This will usually be reviewed after six months.

In response to any serious incident of aggression or violence, the concerns and actions taken will be put in writing immediately and the police informed. This may include banning an individual from the premises.

Anonymous Complaints

The school will not normally be expected to deal with anonymous complaints. However, the Executive Head teacher or Chair of Governors, if appropriate, will determine whether the nature of the complaint justifies any further action

Complaints received outside of term time

These will be treated as though they have been received on the first school day after the holiday period
